SHRI A. G. KULKARNI: Sir, why don't you direct the Leader of the House to get the information? Where is the Leader of the House?

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (PROF. CHANDRESH P. THAKUR): A Cabinet Minister is sitting here. There are two other Ministers. They are listening to what is happening.

SHRI N. E. BALARAM (Kerala): That information is not sufficient. We have no information. Now we are not able to discuss this. But what I suggest is, let the House be adjourned and we can meet again.

SHRI DINESHBHAI TRIVEDI (Gujarat); Sir, it is a very serious matter and if we can have a little more information on the telephone call Dr. Ratnakar Pandey is talking about, it will throw a little more light on the situation. If he can mention a few more details from where the call came...

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (PROF. CHANDRESH P. THAKUR): No individual Member of the House can Substitute for a member of the Government to take the House into confidence. Any other information is informal information and the Government is trying to collect information and I only hope and wish that it will be a little faster in its efforts so far as the results are concerned.

SOME 'HON. MEMBERS: We hope so.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (PROF. CHANDRESH P. THAKUR): I suggest in the meantime, let this statement be made and we can seek clari-cations later.

SHRI S. S. AHLUWALIA: Sir, we are not in a position to discuss anything in the absence of that information.

DR. RATNAKAR PANDEY: Ten minutes have elapsed. Where is the information?
